

Katherine Haley Breen

Certified Water Safety Instructor (WSI) with 42 years competitive swimming history. Began swimming at age 7 to correct childhood scoliosis as successful alternative to surgery.

Twenty-three years teaching and supervising swimming programs for adults and children. Teacher and supervisor for pool and beach front swim program—City of New London, CT, Town of Greenburg, New York, Boy Scouts of America, Red Cross and various health clubs. Stroke and Turn Judge and board member for swim teams in Colonial League in Loudoun County, Virginia.

United States Master Swimmer and Open Water Athlete.