

East End Historic District Forum Agenda

On Wednesday 17 January, 2024 at 7pm, the Bolton Historical Commission will conduct an Informational Forum for residents/owners of property located within the proposed Bolton East End National Register Historic District.

The Forum will be conducted via Zoom (login information is below) and is open both to property owners within the proposed district and the general public

No Official Commission Business will be conducted or votes taken during the Forum. It is strictly informational.

The Forum topics will include:

1. An introductory presentation by the Commission about the proposed District
2. A question-and-answer session to address any District Resident/Property Owner questions.

The discussion will reference the following documents
